

Hi

I am very distraught by the road you have taken FCC as a whole.

You have sold out to the power structures in this country. You are supposed to serve the interests of the people, not acquiesce to the orders of power. Do your job, and serve the public.....do not allow a media company the right to own news paper, tv and other media in one location, this inhibits, variety in our democracy.